HALLOWEEN EDITION

As David mentioned in the October edition of our newsletter, haunters have been doing immersive work since their inception: it's one of the best-established forms of immersive work out there. We're long over-due, then, to highlight what our local haunts have on offer this season.

Many thanks to the fantastic Danielle Look (haunter extraordinaire and Denver's local immersive reviewer for No Proscenium) for her insights and tips as we put together this newsletter!

In this special haunt edition, we feature:

- Haunts around Denver (and a few worth the drive!)

- Other Community News

Buckle up. This is a long one.

HAUNTS AROUND TOWN

A Ride to the Riverdale Gates of Hell

PRESENTED BY HAUNTED FIELD OF SCREAMS

Riverdale Road is known as the most haunted road in Colorado. With stories of hangings, burnings and road-side accidents, lost souls and decrepit creatures

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

They're watching. They're waiting. Evil is right behind you.

Venture through all-new, uncharted territory at the Haunted Field of Screams – weave through giant corn stalks, encounter multiple haunted houses and survive the Riverdale Gates of Hell. On this road in the middle of nowhere, evil has found the perfect place to hide.

Billed as the largest and longest haunt in Colorado, this outdoor experience* backs the famously haunted Riverdale Road in Thornton, Colorado, a jog north of Denver.

Where: 10451 McKay Rd, Thornton, CO 80233

When: Sundown-Midnight Fridays & Saturdays; Sundown-10pm Thursdays & Sundays through Halloween

Pricing: $29.99-$39.99

Less Scary Options Available? None listed; the haunt is recommended for ages 12+.

Terror in the Corn

PRESENTED BY ANDERSON FARMS

Terror in the Corn is 10 acres of fear offering an immersive experience into a world of the unknown. Travel by enclosed trailer until you are dropped off in the middle of nowhere with little more than unsettlingly lively corn fields around. Wander until you happen upon the abandoned town of Raven's Gulch and make your way through the nightmare world of the Mildred Twins, with horrors that greet you at every turn.

Largely outdoors* with some open-air sets, Terror in the Corn is a bit further north in Erie, Colorado, but well worth the drive. The farm itself has been in the Anderson family since 1911. Terror in the Corn was introduced in 2001--over the years, the mile-long haunted maze has expanded to include additional spooky attractions, such as zombie paintball and mini-escape rooms.

Where: Anderson Farms, 6728 County Rd 3 1/4, Erie, CO 80516

When: Thursdays and Sundays 7-10pm, Fri-Sat 7-11pm

Pricing: Tickets start at $30

Less Scary Options Available? Not as a haunt--but Anderson Farms is home

Frightmare Compound

PRESENTED BY THE FRIGHTMARE COMPOUND

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Holder. Still family operated for over 38 years, many of our local home haunters got their start at this community staple. Over the decades, the haunt has grown and expanded to include additional attractions such as mini-escape rooms, a monster-museum selfie palace, and a coffin simulator.

Where: 10798 Yukon St Westminster, CO 80021

When: Sun - Thurs 7-10p.m. Fri-Sat 7pm-Midnight. Halloween Hours (10/31) - 7pm-11pm; Additional Lights-out event the first weekend of November.

Pricing: $29.99-$52.99 (bulk discounts available)

Less Scary Options Available? None listed; the haunt is recommended for ages 13+.

Haunted Mansion

PRESENTED BY REINKE BROTHERS

Frightmare Compound might be better known, but there's another haunt that lays claim to the title of Denver's oldest haunt.

In 1968 Greg and Chris Reinke, still boys at the time, started exploring the "Haunted Attraction" business, setting up shop in the basement of their parents' home. One of their guests that night (who paid a penny for admission) asked, "What would you charge to build this Haunted House for Saint Mary's Carnival?" It was the start of something beautiful.

years, an incredibly creative and artistic accessory to their year-round costume shop (see further on).

Where: 5663 S. Prince Street Littleton, CO 80120

When: Monday-Thursday 6p – 10p; Friday 6p – 12a; Saturday 3p – 12a; Sunday 3p – 10p

Pricing: $20 Sunday-Thursday; $25 Friday-Saturday; $10 for Lights-On Less Scary Options Available? Yes. The “lights on tour” is for children that are not ready for the full effects of the Haunted Mansion. This is a “Universal Studios” type guided tour through the Haunted Mansion with the lights on and most of the special effects off and the “monsters” away to get lunch. This is a perfect venue for getting young ones and first timers used to a haunted attraction without scarring them for life.

Reaper's Hollow Cemetary

PRESENTED BY FRIGHT ACRES

Those who dare to enter Reapers Hollow Cemetery in the old woods may never come back! There have been many gruesome tales about the undead, witches and ghosts! Everyone who enters either comes out possessed or has never returned! The cemetery is filled with unsettled souls. A forgotten place with plenty of space. Where the witches have power and the undead roam! Be aware of the ghosts who are still searching for their home! Can you make it through where they all roam?

HellScream Haunted House

PRESENTED BY HELLSCREAM ENTERTAINMENT

Sure, Colorado Springs is a bit of a haul from Denver but it's worth it.

HellScream is set in a terrifying three-story old medical building and boasts highly-detailed sets, amazing special effects, and the most over-the-top highly-trained actors in the business! Though the location does offer escape rooms, these take place inside the haunt's set, and therefore won't resume operations after haunt season in mid-November.

Where: 3021 N Hancock Ave, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80907

When: Thursday, Sunday 7-10; Fridays, Saturdays 7-11pm through October, with an additional Lights out weekend the first weekend of November.

Pricing: $22-$56 (they offer various combos or VIP tickets with their sister haunt below)

The Empty Grave Haunted House

PRESENTED BY THE EMPTY GRAVE

The Empty Grave Haunted House is an immersive, interactive walk through haunted attraction a short drive from Denver proper. The Empty Grave Haunted House puts you face to face with your fears: your adventure will feature encounters with the menacing workers of a haunted factory, as you attempt to survive your first night on the graveyard shift. Do you have what it takes to survive?

Another one we know little about but are intrigued by, The Empty Grave seems to have a loyal following. Their site answers the question, "What if I Die?" with

13th Floor Haunted House

PRESENTED BY THIRTEENTH FLOOR ENTERTAINMENT GROUP

Probably the best known and best advertised haunt in town, the Denver-based haunt giant 13th Floor Entertainment made the national immersive newswire when Delusion's Jon Braver signed on as their Director of Immersive Entertainment. We're still holding out hope that Braver may bring us something more theatrical like his work in LA, but it looks like this isn't the season. Maybe next year?

Still, if you don't mind the crowds, 13th Floor Haunted House is stuffed with the latest from Transworld and remains a wildly popular haunt, easily accessible from downtown with a number of add-on options such as a secret bar, ax throwing, and a black-out maze.

Where: 3400 E. 52nd Ave., Denver, CO 80216

When: Evenings through November 1st; with two additional weekends in the beginning of November.

Pricing: $19.99-57.99. Buy online at least a day before to avoid the $1 day-of charge or $3 on-site charges.

SPOOKY THEMED IMMERSIVES

Spookadelia 4: The Curse of Novo Ita

PRESENTED BY SPECTRA ART SPACE

An all-ages narrative-driven psychedelic immersive art, augmented reality, and theatrical experience investigating the human condition and our relationship with self and the world while providing a fresh take on art consumption and the haunted experience. The Curse Of Novo Ita is the awe-inspiring and introspective fourth installment of the Spookadelia Series from the artist, makers, and move shakers who brought you Novo Ita, and Spookadelia 1,2, and 3 along with artists now featured at Denver Meow Wolf as well as some new surprise artists making their Spookadelia debut.

Guests who are brave enough to help lift the curse of Novo Ita will have to learn the art of rift walking and reassemble the artifact needed to save the city. They will face many trials as they travel into the home of lost souls known as the Dimension of Mirrors, surpass the allure of power & wealth on the Plane of Fallen Kings, and come face to face with the darkest realms of themselves in the Miasma of Inner Monsters. Once they have assembled the artifact they will use their newfound magic to lift the curse of Novo Ita.

Each room and section of this indoor/outdoor experience is immersive,

Wizard's Chest

451 BROADWAY | DENVER, CO 80203

The Wizard's Chest, whose castle façade and overall look was famously designed by community staple Lonnie Hanzon, is a Denver institution. Originally opened in 1983, The Wizard's Chest drew inspiration from the fantastic world of J.R.R. Tolkien's Middle Earth. Starting in just 850 square feet, the store grew to become an 16,000 square foot whimsical, colorful escape from the drab bleakness of daily shopping drudgery.

The rear of the upper environs of the castle is devoted to costume, make-up and accessory departments. There are hundreds of complete costumes for sale, as well as hats, wigs and masks to complete your look. The Wizard's Chest also boasts a complete theatrical make-up counter, with high quality, professional-grade products, and a knowledgeable staff to answer your questions.

Disguises

9797 W. COLFAX AVE | LAKEWOOD, CO 80215

Disguises is another local costume shop we love. Younger on the scene, but still coming up on 22 years in Colorado, the costume superstore carries rentals and retail for everything from Halloween and holiday parties to theatrical performances. If you're looking for costume contacts, this is the place to get them--unlike many popup Halloween stores, Disguises follows the law and requires a prescription to ensure a safe, proper fit of cosmetic lenses. If you're in Lakewood, give them a visit!

Reinke Brothers

5663 S. PRINCE STREET | LITTLETON, CO 80120

As mentioned above, the Reinke brothers have been around awhile, and while their family-friendly haunt is definitely worth a visit, their shop is the main attraction, carrying an incredible selection of costume rentals, theatrical supplies, magic tricks, props, and more--and they're open until midnight on weekends through Halloween.

Norcostco

4395 BROADWAY | DENVER, CO 80216

If you're new in town and looking for professional theatrical supplies, make sure Norcostco is on your radar. The Minnesota-based company's Denver branch is a supplier of costumes, performance makeup, wigs, props, manufacturer of stage drops and draperies, rigging systems, paint and painting shop.

Fun Services

12345 HURON STREET | WESTMINSTER, CO 80234

Locally owned and operated, serving Denver and the and surrounding areas for over 38 years, Fun Services provides year-round party goods: everything from balloons, helium, to decorations, costumes, wigs, face paints, to paper goods. Fun Services is also a complete party rental store. Tables, chairs, tents, canopies, casino equipment, birthday packages, popcorn, cotton candy, snow cones, and anything else needed for your next party or event.

In Fall, their costume, wig, and makeup selection balloons to provide an excellent selection of Halloween costumes, though they maintain a modest selection of professional theatrical makeup year-round.
